

Southwestern Division Conducting Competition

Southwestern ACDA is pleased to host the Student Conducting Competition at the Divisional Conference in March, 2018. Current undergraduate and graduate students may audition for this prize. The preliminary round is done by video, and the semifinal and final rounds will be at the Divisional Conference in Oklahoma City, March 7-10, 2018. Applications for the Southwest ACDA Student Conducting Competition are being accepted through December 1, 2017. To apply, please submit the following:

-video of the candidate conducting two contrasting musical selections with chorus. The video should show the conductor's face, and should include some rehearsal and some longer passages of music. Selections may be accompanied or unaccompanied, excerpts from larger works are permitted, as well as keyboard reductions for orchestral works. Please post on YouTube and send the link to Catherine Sailer, Conducting Competition Chair at Catherine.Sailer@du.edu. Video should not exceed 12 minutes.

-letter of support from college or university faculty member verifying current collegiate enrollment.

All applicants must be current members of ACDA.

All materials and links should be sent to Catherine.Sailer@du.edu by December 1, 2017.
